

2006 Friends Rental Kart Endurance Race time schedule ( For Afternoon teams )

Until 12:30 Reception

Please arrive at the receptionist area before 12:30. It would ask for an application by a team unit.

13:30 to 14:10 Official practice (40minutes)

After having the explanations of a flow of a race, you can drive a kart. The initial 15 minutes is for the inexperienced person only by slow speed. There should be enough time to do it so please prioritize the time for inexperienced drivers. Let's get used to the kart.

14:15 to 14:45 Driver's briefing

Please listen to the matters that require attention to run safely well. There is explanation about a method of a race from the race official. Please understand the explanation of flags used during a race. There would be a question to you regarding the flag meaning.

The lottery for kart selection is also done in this time.

14:45 to 14:55 1 minute challenge (1 lap measurement)

This is the time trial to decide the starting grid (one lap of measurement). Team representative of team runs in one lap of course. He/she must try to have the nearest for 60 seconds exactly per one lap. The nearer you get the more forward grid you can get.

15:00 to 17:00 Final race (2 hours endurance race)

Final race starts begin with Le Mans starting format (Please refer to the detailed race regulation or race officials). The good teamwork would work well on this starting format. Please decide a role each other in your team.

It is a long race. I have you do pit work on the way in a timing of a driver change. This is a thing totally same as a real race. It is an important thing controlling a race result. Be careful.

( Look at "pit in" in the race regulation in detail. )

17:00 Celebration ceremony

After the long 2hours race, let's do the champagne shower by all the prizewinners to 1st to 3rd place. The other teams can wait for the champagne with vacant cups if the prizewinners are enough generous to give you. The photograph will be taken with all the participants, and finally the toast for finale will be done by all.
